This charming picture book for all ages celebrates life on four wheels in lovely watercolor style. A parade of campers is introduced, each with its own personality and attributes: Bob the Boler cruises down an autumnal road, cutting a “clever” path; Olive, a half-turquoise beauty surrounded by hearts, is a “dream come true” for those within her. Cheerful animal faces and lacy floral flourishes adorn the spare pages, too. Clouds smile above the campers, chickens peck at the ground around them, and the open road beckons in this ideal gift book for those who crave far-flung adventures.
