Bakers Magic is a delightful tale sure to entertain young fantasy enthusiasts. The story centers on Bee, an orphan with an unusual talent for baking; her friend, Will, the blacksmith's apprentice; and Anika, the princess of the kingdom of Aradyn. The princess is in dire need of assistance, for she must escape the cruel mage who is her guardian. The three friends set off on an adventure to not only save the princess, but also the kingdom and the land itself. Mixing themes of magic, love, friendship, and environmentalism, the story truly has a little something for everyone. It is light hearted, entertaining, and thoroughly enjoyable. Ages 9 - 12.
