A little witch discovers that some feats are only possible with the help of a friend in this whimsical picture book. After forgetting her broom outside, the witch can no longer fly it properly; her flying test ends in disaster. When she hears a cry for help one stormy night, she rushes to the rescue—rambunctious broom and all. Ramshackle Rat, his home destroyed by lightning, climbs on the back of her broom, and having a friend along for the ride softens all her landings.
