Bright colors and soft shapes warm this moving picture book about loss and legacy. As a little girl, Paula dreamed of flying like a bird or galloping like a horse; as she grew, she earned the moniker “Mommy Crumbs” for the breadcrumbs that clung to her after cooking for her children and grandchildren. Gifted a chick to clean the crumbs and provide companionship after the loss of her dog, Mommy Crumbs finally gets her chance to fly, leaving a trail of breadcrumbs and memories.
