For the child perhaps still too little to ask comes this bright, informative board book introducing key elements of the Passover seder. The table is set with candles, wine, matzoh, and a full seder plate; juice is poured, hands are washed, the story of the Israelites' escape from slavery is told, and dinner is served. It's all a delight for the youngest character in the book, leading right up to his favorite part: the search for the afikomen.
