From one author and twenty-one illustrators comes this collection of ten-word stories that are, at turns, humorous, touching, and fantastical. The variety of art styles is enchanting: each artist approaches their prompt in a different way. Some are literal, while others make a meal of ambiguity. Though there is delight in the differences, the book rests on a single unifying theme: whether for a sister, a dog, the planet, or a bicycle, every story is brimming with love.
