Appealing vintage scripts and illustrations fill this Little Golden Book-evocative story about a cat with a daily routine. One day, he is surprised to find that someone else filled their basket from his fishing hole first; who? he wonders. An owl promises to answer, if the cat will just free him from the log that trapped his foot. But the cat is on a mission; he wants his fish first. Still, clever owl tricks him into helping twice in this silly tale with a twist.
