Two siblings color, play, and marvel over the majestic tiger that is perhaps closer than they think, lurking in the tall grass. Mixed-media illustrations in textured layers bring out the sunny yellow days and deep blue nights; they are a cheerful backdrop for the book's lyrical verses and descriptive language. Excitement builds as the siblings embark on a thrilling adventure, their imaginations running wild and prompting a frantic dash to the safety of their tree house, begging the question: who is stalking whom?
